POLICIES

With an increase in no showed and late cancelled appointments, I will be updating my company policies. Being a small business, people showing up to their appointments ensures I am able to pay my bills and keep my business running. Please keep in mind that this is my source of income and my clients keep me going. Hopefully you all understand my new policies that I will be upholding going forward. Thank you for supporting my small business! I appreciate each and every one of you more than you know.

TARDINESS

Lash appointments are booked with strict timing limits. Being late to your appointment cuts into your lash time and can have you leaving with an incomplete look. There will be a 10 - minute grace period for late clients. After this time I reserve the right to cancel/ reschedule your appointment. With that being said, if you are running late or think there is a chance you will be running late, please let me know.
